ULTIMATE IN 10 SIMPLE RULES

1. THE FIELD: A rectangular shape with end zones at each end. 70 yards × 40 yards, end zones 20 yards deep.

2. STARTING PLAY: Both teams line up at opposite end zone lines. Defense pulls disc to offense. 7 players per team.

3. SCORING: Offense catches a pass in defense's end zone = 1 point. Teams switch direction after each goal.

4. MOVEMENT OF THE DISC: Disc advanced by passing in any direction. Players may not run with disc. 10-second stall count.

5. CHANGE OF POSSESSION: Incomplete pass (out of bounds, drop, block, interception, stall) → defense takes possession.

6. SUBSTITUTIONS: Players may substitute after a score or during injury timeout.

7. NON-CONTACT: Players must avoid physical contact. Picks and screens are prohibited.

8. FOULS: Contact affecting play = foul. If player disagrees, play is redone.

9. SELF-OFFICIATING: Players responsible for their own foul and line calls. Players resolve disputes.

10. SPIRIT OF THE GAME: Fair play is the player's responsibility. Competition never at expense of respect.

Spirit of the Game

> "Ultimate relies upon a spirit of sportsmanship that places the responsibility for fair play on the player. Highly competitive play is encouraged, but never at the expense of mutual respect among competitors, adherence to the agreed upon rules, or the basic joy of play."

A Sport with No Referees
Spirit of the Game places fair play responsibility on the athletes — each player knows the rules and makes their own calls. Reinforces mutual respect, communication, and self-confidence.

Players make their own calls.
As a self-officiated sport, ultimate depends on personal responsibility to maintain the integrity of the game.

Spirit is part of the rules.
Spirit and its principles are written directly into the official rules of ultimate.

Focus on fair play.
Instead of a win-at-all-costs mentality, Spirit expects players not to take advantage of or knowingly break the rules.
